

Information on personal data protection

Videorights wish to inform you about how we process the personal data that you may provide us with – referred to individuals related to you as a producer or in connection with you - for the conferment and in the execution of the mandate contract, in compliance with the provisions of EU Regulation 2016/679 and applicable national laws.

Personal Data Controller is Videorights S.r.l. ("Controller" o "Videorights"), having its registered office at Via San Bernardino 1, 20122 Milan (MI), Tel. +39 02 40320900 Fax +39 02 40320980.

What kind of data we process and how?

On the occasion of the conferment of the mandate contract and in its execution, Videorights process these following data:

- Personal data (name and surname, place and date of birth, sex, citizenship, nickname) and contact detail (address of residence and/or domicile, mail address, PEC, telephone), included your social networks contacts' profile (nickname)
- biometric data (image of faces and/or other data) included in any identity documents
- Bank data (bank details and similar information for payment) and tax-related data (fiscal code, VAT number, Country of tax residence and applicable tax regime)
- Personal data related to civil/criminal judicial proceedings in which you may be involved (by way of example, executive orders, successions, payment delegation towards third parties)

We wish to inform you that your personal data are processed both in paper and in electronic form, in compliance with the guarantees and the principles provided by the applicable laws.

Nature of conferment of your personal data

In order to sign and correctly execute the mandate, the conferment of your personal data is necessary. Therefore, the consequence of the lack of or incorrect or partial conferment of such personal data is the impossibility to sign the mandate contract and/or to execute it.

Purposes and legal basis of the processing

Videorights process your personal data for the following purposes: (i) to sign agreements for the services rendered by the Controller; (ii) to comply with pre-contractual, contractual and legal obligations – included tax-related ones - deriving from the contractual relationship with you; (iii) promotion of the activity of the Controller, to you and/or third parties, by way of communications on the commercial initiatives and the services rendered by the Controller; (iv) to exercise the Controller's rights, including right to judicial protection; (v) to comply with any other legal obligations laid down by law, national and or EU – including the obligations related to publicity and transparency on the individuals who have conferred mandate on Videorights – as well as to comply with orders issued by a public authority.

The legal basis of the above-mentioned processing is: art. 6, par. 1 lett. b) EU Reg. 2016/679 (performance of a contract or precontractual measures) for the purposes under letters (i) and (ii); art. 6, par. 1 lett. c) EU Reg. 2016/679 (compliance with a legal obligation) for the purpose under letter (v); art. 6, par. 1 lett. f) (Videorights' legitimate interest) for the purposes under letters (iii) and (iv).

Duration

Your personal data are processed for no longer than the time necessary and related to the performance of the mandate and in any event no later than 10 years after termination of the relationship for the purposes under letters (i) e (ii), no later than 2 months after termination of the relationship for the purpose under letter (iii) and according to the limits provided for by specific legal obligations – including tax-related ones – for any other purpose.

Sharing and disclosure of personal data

The Controller may share your personal data with the following subjects: Videorights' staff, including collaborators, in charge of personal data processing; companies, societies and entities in general (collecting societies), Italian or foreign, in charge – on a collective and/or individual basis – of managing neighbouring rights and collecting money due to Videorights' mandators, in their capacity of data processors or independent data controllers; third-party companies or other individuals carrying out outsourced services – like IT, administrative, accounting services - on behalf of the Controller in their capacity of data processors or independent data controllers; any other individual to whom the disclosure of personal data is mandatory or allowed by law, supervisory bodies or judicial authorities; auditors and insurance companies for the relevant services; banks and similar financial institutions for payment purposes.

Personal data transfer

In order to offer its services, Videorights may transfer your personal data to third parties located in countries which are non-EU members. In any event, Videorights shall ensure that such transfer is carried out in accordance with the safeguards provided for by national and EU law (standard contractual clauses or adequacy decisions).
